This ancient settlement, built before the 15th century, is nestled in the eastern range of southern Peru within the Cusco region. In a few words, we can summarize it as one of the world's architectural and engineering masterpieces. It's no wonder that it's recognized as one of the Seven Wonders of the World.

MARCH 25, CUSCO – INTERNATIONAL DEPARTURE

Type of transport	Specification	Departure	Arrival	Baggage Allowance	Weight per Luggage
Flight: International Connection

Early morning, you will be picked up from your hotel to visit the surrounding ruins of the city of Cusco: Sacsayhuaman, one of the most impressive buildings in the world, an Inca ceremonial temple with a unique panoramic view of the surroundings of the city of Cusco dedicated to the Father Sun, and the Inca military. This massive Inca fortress is built on three overlapping platforms, each over 360 m long.

Continue to Koricancha or Temple of the Sun. Koricancha (in Quechua, a site of gold) was the main religious building of the Incas dedicated to the worship of the Sun, whose walls, according to the chroniclers, were plated with sheets of gold. Magnificent blocks of finely carved stone were used in its construction.

Then, you will go to the San Blas neighbourhood, where famous artisans traditionally gathered, just a short but increasingly steep walk from the Plaza de Armas. It has artist studios, artisan workshops, and many best bars and restaurants. It is a great area to walk around; many streets are for pedestrians only. In the small plaza at the top and to the right of Cuesta San Blas is the small white Temple of San Blas, which is said to be the oldest parish church in Cusco. Many talented people live in the San Blas area and have artistic personalities.

At a coordinated time, transfer to the airport to board the flight to next destination.
